

Synthetic Transtibial Socket Sock Casting Application

Supplier:

STS Company

Features & Benefits:

- Safe
- Comfortable
- Lightweight
- Clean application and removal
- Virtually eliminates all wrinkling
- Can be easily modified
- Durable— Stronger resin formulation allows immediate shipping or scanning without damaging casts
- Knitted tubular shaped sock, closed on one end
- Excellent conformity providing an accurate model for CAD/CAM
- Glass-smooth finish
- Innovative removal system eliminates the need for a cast saw
- Significant reduction in both material cost and time of fabrication

Specifications:

- Transtibial sock
- Made from fiberglass and Spandex®
- Knitted and then impregnated with a water curable polyurethane resin

Indications:

- Residual limb molding

Call Points:

- Prosthetist
- Prosthetic technician

Warranty:

- Against manufacturer defects

1717

See Materials Catalog 2007/08, #23 (page 25)

Item No.	Description
STS-1004	Prosthetic synthetic transtibial socket sock